

CZECH
HYDROMETEOROLOGICAL
INSTITUTE

Subject: 33rd RC LACE Steering Committee Meeting, 16-17 September - Organizational Details

Dear Sir/Madamme,

We would like to provide you with information on public transportation in Prague, the location of the CHMI, preliminary time-schedule etc. You are invited to come to the CHMI main building (not the Castle, please see the map below).

Address of the institute is:

Czech Hydrometeorological Institute
Na Šabatce 17
143 06 Praha 4 – Komořany

The meeting will take place at the meeting room situated at the ground floor of the main building. Agenda will be sent separately by the LSC Chair.

Please note, that there will be an optional lunch possibility in the canteen of CHMI (you need local currency, our canteen does not accept neither Euros, neither CC cards. Current exchange rate: 1 € = 25.00 CZK (Czech Crown). Please could you indicate us whether you would like to take lunches or not.

Transport Details

As far as the transport from the airport concerns: a taxi costs up to 1000 CZK (40 EUR) to any destination within Prague. If you prefer using Prague public transport from the airport to CHMI, you may use public transport connection Journey Planner <http://www.dpp.cz/en/transport-around-prague/> Moveit smartphone app <https://moovitapp.com/> is available in Prague as well.

The fare by the public transport (underground, tram, bus - MHD is abbreviation for public transport in Czech language) costs 32 CZK for 90 min. (transfer ticket, all combinations) and the tickets are available in newspaper shops or in coin slot machines (mostly in underground stations) and at the Airport as well). For details you can consult pages of Pragues' traffic company on www.dpp.cz. Only properly validated tickets (use the equipment in the bus/tram/metro entrance) will be accepted! There is a day / 3-days ticket available as well 110 / 310 CZK.

How to get to CHMI

From Airport. Take the bus No.119 get off at the stop called Nadrazi Veleslavin where you transfer to underground line A, direction Depo Hostivar (the underground is called METRO in Czech). Get off at the stop STAROMESTSKA and find tram No 17 going direction Sidliste Modrany. Get off the tram at Nadrazi Modrany station and continue by bus 165 or 139 to KOMORANY station. Then see the map. This adventure takes about 1,5 hour and cost you 1,5 Euro only! Good luck!

By car. Find GPS: 49.9881933N, 14.4066825E

Note please, that Motorway Brno-Prague is still under engineering works, therefore consider to avoid it or have a look at:

<http://www.dopravniinfo.cz/Default.aspx?lang=en>

Find Zbraslavské nám., 156 00 Praha-Zbraslav and from there use this map: <https://goo.gl/maps/Hemt5LMm1yaPnb977>

CHMU in Czech language means CHMI.

For the further information concerning organizational matters, please do not hesitate to contact: Mr. Karel Vancura, Head of Dept. of International Relations (karel.vancura@chmi.cz, +420 244 032 720, Emergency phone +420 603 488 779). For I am looking forward to meet you soon in Prague!

With the best regards
CHMI NWP Team

See also:

<http://www.private-prague-guide.com/frequently-asked-questions/transportation-arriving-and-departing-prague/>