

During the evening 30th May 2001 huge Cb came from Slovenia and hit first the western part of Zagreb and afterwards the southern part. Maximum measured size of Cb was: radius more than 20 km, and height 14 km. Area of the Cb with reflectivity higher than 65dBz reach the 8,5km height. Lot of family houses and cars were damaged with hail.

Radar data and ALADIN forecast are not yet available.