Dates: March 3rd and 4th 2026.

Address: Ravnice 48, 10000 Zagreb

Location: Kraš building, Griotte room at the ground floor (left hallway from the lifts)

When entering the building, on the left of the entrance there are building security personnel and they might ask you to show your ID, so have it with you, please.

In case you are arriving by car, there is a large free parking on the left of the building, subject to availability.

How to get here:

Tram lines: 4,7,11,12 (exit at Ravnice station)

Tram line 7 operates between main bus station and Ravnice station; Line 4 operates between main train station and Ravnice station; Lines 11 and 12 operate between city center (main square) and Ravnice station.

You can buy tickets at Tisak or iNovine kiosks for 0.53 euros (30 min), 0.93 euros (60 min) or 1.33 euros (90 min). Physical tickets need to be validated inside the tram. Machines for validating physical tickets are at the first and last door of the tram. You can also buy tickets through the ZET app or directly with the tram driver (a bit more expensive). 30 min is usually enough for travel from the city center to Ravnice by tram.

In case you are taking a taxi, be very careful as there are quite a few scammer companies around Zagreb. I recommend using Uber, Bolt or the official Zagreb taxi company 1717 (they are clearly marked by blue stickers).

Getting from the airport to the city:

When exiting the airport, bus shuttles driving to Zagreb bus station are situated on the right. You can buy tickets directly with the bus driver or online.
